

LET'S TALK ABOUT PATELLAS

The 'Putnam' Method

Saturday 12th November 2011

Great Alne Memorial Hall, Warwicks at 1.30 pm.

The Memorial Hall is situated at the centre of Great Alne, an attractive Warwickshire village on the B4095, just 2 miles from the old Roman town of Alcester, 7 miles from Stratford-upon-Avon. The post code is B49 6HL.

Our speaker is Bryony Herrod-Taylor, a West Country Vet who has a special interest in this subject and has given talks to fellow vets. She is highly thought of by various breed clubs for her knowledge.

The cost is £15.00 per person including tea and bikkies and a buffet lunch is available at a small charge on the day.

The Lancashire Heeler Association (Proposed) will be holding an 'Introduction to the Lancashire Heeler' talk (history/breed standard with hands on but no formal examination) starting at 10 am (contact Jacky Cutler for details).

(Mob & on the day 0771 916 2214) or eddie@runfoldspitz.co.uk
